COLUMBUS, Ga. - The No. 5-ranked and top-seeded Columbus State University women's soccer team advanced to the NCAA Southeast Region final with a — win over visiting and No. 4-seeded Armstrong State University on Sunday afternoon at the Walden Soccer Complex.

SCORING SUMMARY
1st - 3:44 - Mandy Janowitz (Columbus St.)
1st - 10:44 - Olivia Jarrell (Columbus St.)
1st - 16:38 - Martha Trimbach (Armstrong State)

The Cougars (19-2) advance to face second-seeded North Georgia - 4-3 winners over sixth-seeded Carson-Newman - in the Southeast Region final next weekend. Armstrong State (14-5-2) sees its season come to a close in the NCAA's second round for a second straight season.

Columbus State started quickly in the first half, getting a goal from Mandy Janowitz just three minutes and 44 seconds into the contest to take a 1-0 lead. The Cougars added to that lead in the 11th minute as Janowitz set up Olivia Jarrell with a pass, and Jarrell finished for her Peach Belt Conference-leading 18th goal of the year for the 2-0 advantage.

Armstrong State would rally to tie the match over the next 20 minutes. Sophomore Martha Trimbach pounced on a rebound after a shot from sophomore Taylor Snell was blocked, scoring her sixth goal of the season in the 17th minute to cut the deficit to 2-1.

Junior Michelle Allen then struck from 25-yards out, bending a free kick into the right corner of the net for her first goal of the year in the 30th minute.

Columbus State re-assumed control of the match with two goals over the next 10 minutes. Georgia Barton tallied her second goal of the year in the 36th minute, off of a pass from Flo Spano from the end line, to give the Cougars back the lead at 3-2. Barton then added another goal just four minutes later, off of another assist from Spano, in the 40th minute and a 4-2 lead that Columbus State would take into halftime. CSU held a 9-4 edge in shots in the first half between the two teams.

It was only the second time Armstrong State has given up four goals in one half in program history. Clayton State scored four second-half goals in a 5-1 win over the Pirates in the 2005 PBC Tournament Semifinals, the first year of varsity competition for Armstrong State.

Columbus State capped the scoring with a third goal on the day from Barton with just 46 seconds left in the second half, making the score 5-2.

"Obviously, it was a disappointing ending to a good season," Armstrong State head coach Eric Faulconer said. "For some reason, we just continue to allow Columbus State to jump on us early. You can't be successful against a team that is as good and as well coached as they are, if that happens. Ultimately, that falls on me as a coach to figure out why we continue to fall short in our preparation against them.

"Over three matches, they completely dominated us and that didn't happen to us in any other match this season. I wish the Cougars going forward all the best. They are a class act and I have great respect for their program."

The Cougars finished the match with an 18-9 edge in shots. Senior Erica Laurens made four saves in net for the Pirates, while Maylyn Parsons made four saves in net for Columbus State. Armstrong State was whistled for seven fouls, compared to five for the Cougars, and Columbus State held a 6-2 edge in corner kicks. CSU was offsides six times in the match.

Armstrong State will return 22 players - including All-Conference defenders Allen and Olivia DeJong and All-Conference midfielder Randi Schroedel - for 2017.
